

Dr. Mohammad Abu Rumman

Dr. Mohammad Abu Rumman is a researcher who specializes in Political Thought and Islamic Movements. Dr. Abu Rumman received his Bachelor's degree in Political Sciences from Yarmouk University in 1995. He also received his Master's degree in Political Sciences from Al Albayt University 2000. Then, he obtained his PhD. in the Philosophy of Political Theory from the faculty of Economics and Political Sciences at Cairo University. Dr. Abu Rumman is a writer for the daily Jordanian Newspaper Al Ghad.

Dr. Abu Rumman has also published numerous studies and books, including:

- Political Reform in Islamic Thought (The Arabic Network for Research and Studies, Beirut 2011).
- Between the Governance of God and the Nation's Authority: Political Thought for Sheikh Mohammad Rashid Reda (Ministry of Culture, the Family Library 2011).
- Jihadi Salafi in Jordan after the assassination of Al-Zarqawi (Friedrich Ebert, Amman 2009).
- Jordanian Policy and the Challenge of Hamas (Friedrich Ebert, Amman 2010).
- The Muslim Brotherhood after the Boycott of Parliamentary Elections of 2010 (The Center for Strategic Studies Papers, The University of Jordan 2011).
- "Salafi jihadists" in Jordan, the Arab Approach to the Democratic Revolutions (The Center for Strategic Studies Papers, The University of Jordan, July 2011).
- "The Role of Western and Arabic Media on the War of Iraq" (The Strategic Report, Al-Bayan Journal, issue no.2, 2004).
- Moderate Islam, the Dilemma of The U.S. Ministry of Foreign Affairs (The Center of Political Perspective).
- "From Containment to Regime Change: The U.S. Policy in the Middle East after September 11" (Al-Manar Al-Jadid Journal, issue no.25, 2004).
- A co-author of the book "Cosmetic Surgery in Islamic Work: A Review of The Experience of the Justice and Development Party of Turkey" (The Center of Nation's Studies, Amman 2004).
- A co-author of the book "Towards a Civilized Democratic Islamic Speech" (Al-Quds Studies Center, Amman 2007, in both Arabic and English).
- The Muslim Brotherhood in the Jordanian Parliamentary Elections of 2007: A Passing Political Setback or a Decrease in Popularity (Friedrich Ebert, Amman, December 2007, in both Arabic and English).

Accredited Articles in the International Policy Journal:

- The Pakistani Model and the Industry of Terrorism (issue no.170, October 2007).
- Debate Over the Relationship Between Al-Qaeda and Armed Groups in Iraq (issue no.169, July 2007).
- New Actors and A Reordering of the Regional Game Rules (issue no.168, April 2007).
- Jordan and Iraq: Containment Versus Chaos (April 2008).

Work Experience:

- Researcher at the Center for Strategic Studies at the University of Jordan since 2011.
- The Article Editorial Manager and a writer at Al Ghad Jordanian Daily Newspaper from 2004- 2011.
- Member of the National Dialogue Committee, 2011.
- Member of the Supreme Committee that prepared a strategy for the development of scientific research at the University of Jordan, 2011.

Works in progress:

- The Salafi Spring: a Question of Shari'a and Democracy in the New Arab System.
- The Islamic Solution in Jordan: Challenges of Democracy and Security.